

Ayman's Guide to the Urdu Language

- I learn Urdu at home with my family; I've been speaking English for a long time, but I'm lucky to have the chance to learn Urdu because my mum and my uncle come from Pakistan. I try to learn something new every day with my family.
- I know lots of Urdu words; 'alafz' means 'word'. You say 'baahal' for 'good', 'faaidaa' means 'benefits' and 'pathar' means 'stone'.
- I use my mobile 'phone to learn reading and writing – this is the word for Urdu – in Urdu !
